To celebrate 50 years of the OK Dinghy...

In 2007, the OK Dinghy International Association (OKDIA) is celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the design of the OK Dinghy by publishing a comprehensive book on its history and sailing techniques. It will include all the major regattas over the past 50 years and provide a unique instruction manual for new and experienced OK Dinghy sailors.

Up to 2,000 copies will be printed on high quality paper and it is set to become THE reference guide to all things OK for many years to come.

To advertise:

Email your preferred size and artwork or advertising material to the editor at robertdeaves@yahoo.co.uk or fill in the form below.

State your preferred method of payment (cheque, cash, invoice).

Please note: All advertising should be booked by May 1st 2007. No booking is confirmed until payment is received.

While the class is funding a large part of the production costs, it needs advertising contributions to meet all the costs incurred.

It is hoped that all OK Dinghy suppliers, mast makers and sailmakers, as well as other manufacturers and the companies of OK sailors will support this exciting project by taking an advertisement within the book.
